Dear Mr. Siebert,

I do have a vague recollectionoof having heard from you some years ago. Since then I've had health problems which may contribute to the vagueness of my recollection.

I do not have any recollection of the content of what you sent nor do I recall how I filed it. Without recalling that I cannotx retrieve if from that very large collec ion of files.

If you have any documentation of course I would welcome it.

I would not drag your name in the mud, of course.

I do have another book in the works but I've not been able to keep working at it. Depends on how I feel at any one moment.

Please remember when you write that I do not recall what you toldme when you wrote several years ago.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
